

The Daily News.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1863.

COMMERCIAL.

The Charleston Cotton Market.

The foreign news caused holders yesterday to withdraw their stocks from the market, and operations were very much restricted in consequence. The sales were confined to 40 bales of repacked Cotton at 22 1/2c, and 20 bales of Middling to Strict Middling, the former selling at 31 1/2c, and the latter at 34 1/2c.

Augusta Market.

AUGUSTA, July 12.—COTTON.—There has been a moderate demand, at rather irregular rates, ranging from 28 to 31c. There was quite an excited market early in the day, and sales were made at 151, and even higher rates were offered, but no sales were made. The market, after the receipt of the noon dispatches from New York, was more quiet. SILVER.—Unchanged.

Mobile Market.

MOBILE, July 10.—COTTON.—The market of to-day remains about what it has been for the past few days. The Liverpool advice to the 28th, received this morning, had the effect of making prices a little easier, but without any great change. 500 bales were disposed of, on a basis of 29c for Middling. Factors are still holding back their good bales, and the stock offering is not of a desirable quality.

MONSIEUR DE FINANCIAL.—The condition of financial matters in London and Liverpool, as reported by the steamer (of the 28th) received this morning, shows a more satisfactory state of affairs than has existed since the panic. The Bank of England has not yet put down the rate, as was generally expected, but the London papers report this "standstill" as a precautionary measure in view of the uncertainty of political affairs in Europe. The sudden influx of Gold in New York took quite a number by surprise, and shows conclusively that the foreign news was not looked upon as an indication of a market here opened at about 150, and some few sales were made early in the day at from 150 to 151, with considerable inquiry. Most of the orders were filled, however, after the decline was accepted here, and closed at 148 to 150.

Sterling is almost a drug upon the market. The same condition exists in New Orleans. Inquiries are being made from that point as to whether Commercial Sterling can be made here at all, and at what prices. A fair amount of business has been done in New York at irregular prices. The banks were drawing this morning at 1/2 premium, and outside rates 1/2 premium, but since 1 o'clock different parties have drawn at from 1/2 discount to 1/2 premium. New Orleans still continues at par.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, July 10.—COTTON.—Sale to-day of 900 bales at a decline of 1c; Low Middling 31 to 32; receipts to-day of 37 bales; receipts of four days 1540 bales, against 2028 bales last week at the same time; exports of 4476 bales; stock 105,500 bales. SUGAR.—Fair at 14 to 14 1/2c. Tobacco.—Sales of three days 550 hhds at 13 to 14. Sterling 65. New York Exchange 1/2 premium. Gold 48 1/2c.

Memphis Market.

MEMPHIS, July 10.—COTTON.—There was nothing new in the cotton market yesterday. The news from Liverpool and New York was very contrasting, and holders were thereby inspired to hold off and await further advice, which, it is predicted, will be still more favorable. We quote:

Ordinary	24 to 25
Good Ordinary	25 to 26
Low Middling	26 to 27
Middling	27 to 28
Strict Middling	28 to 29
Good Middling	29 to 30

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, July 10.—COTTON.—Some inquiry for Rio, and we believe a sale of 600 bales has been made, but the particulars not given.

Flour.—There is no demand for new City Mills flour for export, but the receipts of wheat are too small yet to admit of heavy contracts. We quote high grade shipping Extra at $13.50 to $13.75, within which several "household" brands are now being ground. The receipts of Howard-street and Western descriptions are both small, and good grades very scarce, which, with a fair trade demand, causes prices to be maintained. Common Northwestern is plenty and very dull of sale. We report to-day a sale of 10 bbls Super at $8.25. We revise quotations as follows: Howard-street Super and Cut Extra $9.75 to $10.25; do Extra Shipping $11.25 to $12.50; do High Grades Retailing $13 to $14.25; do Family $14.50 to $15.50; Ohio Super and Cut Extra, not doing, $10.50 to $11.50; do Retailing $12.50 to $13.50; do Family $15 to $15.50; Northwestern Super $8.00 to $9.25; do Extra $10.50 to $12.50; City Mills Super $9.50 to $9.75; do Shipping $13.00 to $14.00; do Standard $14.00 to $15.00; to $11.50; Baltimore, Welch's and Greenfield Family $17.50; Baltimore High Grade Extra $13.50 to $13.75 per bbl. Rye Flour, new, $5.75 to $6 per bbl. Corn Meal—City Mills and Brandywine $5.25 to $5.75 per bbl. GRAY.—Wheat was in very limited supply to-day, only 850 bushels new white, and no red; the market was nominally maintained in the absence of sales of red; 100 bushels of new white brought $2.90, and 350 of do red per bushel. Old Western continued neglected. Corn was in light receipt. Only 5000 bushels offered; sales of 500 bushels mixed white at $1.12 to $1.15; 60 bushels good white at $1.17; prime quoted at $1.18; 3500 bushels light sold at 96 cents. Western is dull; white or mixed worth about $1.00. The market for heavy Western is offered, but quote 62 to 64 cents; Maryland and Pennsylvania are quoted with sales at 67 to 68 cents. Rye—no receipts or sales; prices range from $1.15 to 1.20 per bushel, but no sales.

MOLASSES.—No transactions reported. PROVISIONS.—Are very firm in all prices generally, and an active jobbing demand for Bulk Meats and Bacon. We quote Bulk Sides at 16 1/2c; Sides 18 1/2c; 18 1/2c; Pork, Bacon Shoulders at 17 1/2c to 18 cents; sides 20 1/2c to 21 cents; Sugar Cured Hams 24 1/2c to 26 cents, as to quality and fancy. Mess Pork quoted at $34 per barrel. Western Lard, in tierces 22 1/2c; City do 22 cents; Baltimore refined 24 1/2c in kegs.

SUGAR.—The market has been more active, with sales late yesterday and to-day amounting to 600 hhds Porto Rico at 12 to 13 1/2c, taken principally by home trade, prices closing steady.

BAIT.—We report last quotations, business confined to lots from jobbers, viz: 1 Liverpool Ground Alum $2.25; Fine $3.25 to $3.50 sack. Turkeys Island steady at 60 to 65c per bushel.

BEANS.—Timothy is inquired for, but market entirely quiet; would bring about 35 to 38c per bushel. Clover is quiet, held at $7.75, but no buyers. Flax steady at $3.15 per bushel.

WHISKY.—We hear of sales to-day; held nominally at $2.25 per gallon.

Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—COTTON.—The market is more active, but prices are unchanged. 200 bales of Middling sold in lots at 37 to 38c per lb.

COAL OIL.—Continues dull, and prices are rather low. 500 bbls crude sold at 23c; 1200 bbls refined in bond at 37 1/2c to 38c; small lots of free at 35 to 55c per gallon, as to quality.

SUGAR.—Sugar and Coffee continue very quiet, and we hear of no sales of either worthy of notice. FLOUR.—There is no demand for shipment, and the market continues very dull, but prices are without change. About 1000 bbls sold in lots, to the home trade, including:

Northwestern superfine	at 7 25/100
Northwestern extra	at 8 5/100
Northwestern extra family	at 11 00/100
Pennsylvania and Western superfine	at 8 25/100
Pennsylvania and Western extra	at 8 25/100
Pennsylvania and Western extra family	at 11 00/100
Pennsylvania and Western superfine	at 8 25/100
Pennsylvania and Western extra	at 8 25/100
Pennsylvania and Western extra family	at 11 00/100
Pennsylvania and Western superfine	at 8 25/100
Pennsylvania and Western extra	at 8 25/100
Pennsylvania and Western extra family	at 11 00/100

RECEIPTS AND STOCKS OF FLOUR CONTINUE LIGHT; most holders are free sellers within the above range of prices.

GRAIN.—Wheat continues dull and prices have again declined. 1500 bushels new red sold at $2.80 to 2.85 and 4000 bushels on terms kept private. In white there is nothing doing. Pennsylvania rye is quoted at $1.20 per bushel, but we hear of no sales. Corn is in fair demand. Small sales of Pennsylvania and Western yellow are making at $1 to 1.02, and 7000 bushels mixed Western at 97 to 98 cents per bushel. (Cats continue unsettled. 2000 bushels Western sold at 63 to 65c, and 3000 bushels Pennsylvania at 67 to 68c per bushel. The receipts to-day are as follows: 1099 bushels; 3000 bushels white; 5070 bushels corn; 4800 bushels oats. PROVISIONS.—Prices are well maintained. Small sales are making at $3.30 per bbl for new mess pork; 20 to 25c per lb for bacon hams; 20 to 21c for pickles; 16 to 16 1/2c for salt shoulders; and 22 1/2 to 23c per lb for lard in bbls and tierces.

SEEDS.—Cloverseed sells slowly at 750 to 88 per 64 lb. Timothy is nominally held at 5 to 5.50. Flaxseed is wanted by the orderers at 3.40 to 3.50; 100 bushels sold at the latter rate.

WHISKY.—Is dull; sales of 50 bbls Pennsylvania at $2.25, and Ohio at 2.25 to 2.29 per gallon.

The New York World of the 11th inst. says: COTTON.—The market is greatly depressed by the foreign news and the decline in gold. There is no relief to the accumulating stocks in the market, except the high foreign exports, and it is very uncertain how the European market will be supported under the new valuations of shipments from this side. The stock in the ports is estimated at nearly 400,000 bales, and the deliveries at the ports are in excess of the wants of our customers. The sales of the week are only 4500 bales. Exports 676 bales, of which 630 to Liverpool and 46 to Havre. Receipts 10,320 bales. Sales to-day, 1100 bales, at 35 to 37 1/2c for Middling, Uplands to Orleans.
